

CALL TO FOR APPLICATIONS

Moynihan Public Service Fellowship

The Next Generation of Civic Leaders

The Moynihan Undergraduate Fellowship is a transformative two-year program that prepares promising CCNY students for impactful careers in government, policy research, and civic leadership. Fellows join a dynamic intellectual community that spans several career stages, from peer undergraduates to distinguished practitioners, while engaging in a unique curriculum that combines rigorous academic study with practical professional development.

$5,000

- Stipend for each school year

$5,000

- Supporting each summer internship

Applicants must be:

- Full-time CCNY undergraduate student
- A freshman or sophomore at the time of application
- Interested in a career in public service

Applicants must submit:

- Resume
- Transcript (unofficial version is okay)
- Personal Statement
- Up to 2 references

Up to $20,000

Award

For undergraduate students pursuing innovative careers in public service

Applications due

January 20, 2026